

Soon Our Suffering Will Be Done

1 Soon our suff - ring will be done, When our
 2 Soon we'll leave this dream be - hind, When from
 3 Soon we'll wake to live a - right, Leav - ing
 4 Soon we'll gath - er up a - bove, Borne a -
 5 Soon to - ge - ther we'll re - joice Ov - er

fin - al vict' - ry's won; Grief and sor - row will be gone sleep we're roused to find What God tru - ly had in mind
 sin's dark sha - dowed night; Blind - ness will give way to sight loft by heav - en's dove: We'll re - join the cir - cle of God's most gra - cious choice, Lift - ing up on high our voice,

When we're gath - ered 'round God's Son.
 When He chose to make man - kind.
 When we're bathed with Christ's pure light.
 God's e - ter - nal life of love.
 Join - ing heav - en's joy - ful noise.

6 Soon we'll rise to live anew
 With the third day's morning dew;
 Living in a world that's true
 Where death's died and all's made new.

7 Soon! Proclaims His empty tomb.
 Soon. Our Mother gently croons.
 Soon. He says, as we commune.
 "I, the Lord, am coming soon!"