

We have been exploring Christology for the last several weeks, and with good reason. Jesus Christ is the bedrock of our Christian faith, but as seekers engage in the Conversations, the question comes up: what makes Him different? We can reel off the names of several other religious leaders and many other faith groups. So, what is it about Jesus? In this educational release, the Director of Communications (Dr. T) invites Rev. David Haberstock to the Conversations to answer this question . . .

Dr. T: What makes Jesus different from other religious leaders?

Rev. Haberstock: Hear what Rev. David Haberstock has to say here.

Rev. David Haberstock was ordained in 2004. He has been Regional Pastor of Central Region for 7 years and has served parishes in Ontario and Saskatchewan. He is husband to Lise, and father to 3 adult children and 1 teenager.

Jesus's distinction is wrapped in the Cross. In our next Conversation, we pause to unpack what this means on our journey back to basics . . .
