

In a previous entry of the Conversations, Rev. Dr. Richard Juritsch answered the question: “Can the Bible be trusted even when it’s hard to understand?” A similar question was raised, which the Director of Communications (Dr. T) invites back Rev. Juritsch to answer:

Dr. T: Why does some of the Bible feel harsh?

Rev. Juritsch: Listen to what Rev. Dr. Richard Juritsch has to say here.

Rev. Dr. Richard Juritsch has served as a parish pastor for eight years at Risen Christ Lutheran Church, Mississauga, ON and for twenty-five years at Grace Lutheran Church, St. Catharines, ON, where he currently serves. God has blessed him with his wife, Tracey, and his daughter, Katie and son-in-law, Mason.

Keep tuning in to the Conversations, where we journey back to basics and have your questions answered.
