

In last week's entry, Rev. Brad Schollenberg explains what the Gospel is, for those seeking answers to terms many others may take for granted. In today's Conversation, the Director of Communications (Dr. T) invites him back to explain how the Gospel leads to change:

Dr. T: How does the Gospel actually change a person?

Rev. Schollenberg: Listen to the Conversation here.

Rev. Brad Schollenberg is a proud father and grandfather. Married to Heidi, the couple has been blessed with four children and several grandchildren. Rev. Schollenberg is now a retired pastor, having served Peace Lutheran Church in central region for over 30 years.

Rev. Schollenberg's passionate explanation continues beyond this week's entry. So, join us next week for the rest of this Conversation as we journey back to basics!
