

In the last few week's entries, what the Gospel is and how it changes a person were both explained. But does this help us to maintain standards of holiness? In today's Conversation, the Director of Communications (Dr. T) invites Rev. Tom Kruesel to address this.

Dr. T: Christians are called to be holy, but how? What's the role of grace in this?

Rev. Kruesel: Listen to the Conversation here.

Rev. Tom Kruesel was born and raised on the Prairies of Canada. He is married to Wendy-Lee, whom he met in university. He served congregations in Portage la Prairie, MB, and Campbell River, BC. He has served on various boards and committees in the church and has served in various roles at the national level since 2010. He has also served his community in various organizations. He serves as a volunteer skipper for a Christian sailing camp, and is an active Canadian Ranger. He retired from full-time ministry in 2022, although he still serves the church in various ways.

We are grateful to Rev. Kruesel. Join us next week for more answers to your questions in the Conversations as we journey back to basics!
